WILL KELLERMANN

PAINTINGS FROM PORTUGAL

Will Kellermann discovered Portugal on one of her many painting travels as a renowned 'plein air' painter.

She is captivated by the authenticity of the Portuguese landscape, the people and the surprising lightfall.

She has a studio in the beautiful Algarvian city of Tavira and various exhibitions in different galleries throughout the Algarve. Her work can often be seen in the Museum do Traje in São Brás de Alportal.

Her paintings are very distinctive and won several International Awards. She is well known for her flamboyant Silkcolors© and even China discovered these unique paintings. She made a series of small Silkcolors© especially for Portugal and framed then with perspex.

Worth mentioning are her large spectacular oilpaintings in which she expresses the beauty of the authentic Portuguese feeling of Saudade and Sabores.

Lost City - oil painting
